Chapter 1 by Sdyates

My first book was very unique it was made from some scrap paper I had found on the floor and it was bound up by shoe laces from a pair of shoes I found in the trash. I live in dallas texas. I was 12 years old and had trouble reading not to mention writing. I worked hard on my school work so the only time I had to write was when I had finished my school work or when the teacher wasn't teaching the class. I was already picked on by the older kids but now that I was attempting to write a book even the younger kids acted like they hated me. I
